

Jan Young NMD, 39 Club Eustis, Florida

Jan Young has her doctorate as a Naturopathic Doctor and is a certified Body Ecologist. She has worked in the Wellness education field for over 15 years, teaching classes on whole food nutrition, juicing, raw foods, vegetarian cooking and alternative healing methods. She specializes in the field of probiotic balancing for good health. She has also owned and operated Living Foods, a natural food store and juice bar, and Well By Design, an Organic Outreach. She feels blessed to be able to share what she's learned and to be of service to others.

Jan has been with NSA for 10 years. She passionately shares Juice Plus knowing that it's the perfect nutritional anchor needed by all. She prides herself in being part of a wonderful Juice Plus team, and that together, they have impacted the health and wealth of thousands. Continuing on that path, her NSA goal is to reach 100 Club. She is thankful for her Juice plus business and what it has given her : A Life of Choice.

Jan lives on her ranch in Eustis, Florida, along with her horses and chickens. She has a very busy life maintaining her ranch, various hobbies, organic gardening, holding classes, consulting, traveling and running her Juice Plus business. She finds joy everywhere and especially spending time with her Juice Plus family, Mom, and her two wonderful skydiving sons, Jason and Marcus.
