

Jayne Orr
Senior Sales Coordinator

Ft. White, Florida

Jayne has a Bachelor of Science degree in Health from The University of North Florida. She has been an advocate for Holistic health for over 20 years as a licensed massage therapist and lay homeopath. She was also a mental health counselor and coordinator of patient services for the national multiple sclerosis society. When Jayne first learned about Juice Plus+ she realized that adding the whole food nutrition found in Juice Plus+ was the missing piece. It would complete her mission, to assist people in becoming Happy, Healthy, Wealthy and Wise. The Juice Plus+ "experience" is the best. I am able to really make a difference in this world. Best of all I am able to share my passion each day with a terrific group of like minded people. Jayne lives on five acres near a small town in North Central Florida. You can find her in her organic garden or playing outside on the river in her kayak. Her son Paul lives in Fort Lauderdale with his fiancée, Liz.
